

Dr. Paolo G. Valerio – AMSTERDAM (NL)

Professional education:

1986 MD degree, University of Amsterdam, medical school

1988-1993 Specialty training in Pediatrics, Academic Medical Center, Amsterdam and St. Elisabeth Hospital, Curaçao, The Netherlands Antilles

1999-2002 Fellowship Neonatology, Academic Medical Center, Amsterdam

Employment history:

1986-1988 Medical investigator, dept. of Medical Physics, University of Amsterdam

Resident in Cardiology, Free University Hospital, Amsterdam

Resident in Pediatrics, Emma Children's Hospital, Amsterdam

1988-1993 Resident in training for Pediatrics, Academic Medical Center, Amsterdam and St. Elisabeth Hospital, Curaçao, The Netherlands Antilles

1993-1999 Pediatrician, Red Cross Hospital and Burn Centre, Beverwijk, The Netherlands

1999-2002 Fellow Neonatology, Academic Medical Center, Amsterdam

2002–2003 Pediatrician/neonatologist, St. Antonius Hospital, Nieuwegein, The Netherlands

2003 – 2009 Pediatrician/neonatologist, level IIB neonatal unit, OLVG Hospital, Amsterdam (Teaching Hospital of the University of Amsterdam)

2010 Sabbatical year with working visits to Pediatric Emergency Departments in Canada (Alberta Children's Hospital, Calgary and Stollery Children's Hospital, Edmonton)

2010-2018 Pediatrician, emergency department, OLVG Hospital, Amsterdam (Teaching Hospital of the University of Amsterdam)

Other functions:

- Member "Taskforce on procedural sedation and analgesia (PSA) in children", Dutch Pediatric Association.
- Chairman "Committee on pain management in children", OLVG Hospital, Amsterdam.
- Member "Committee on procedural sedation", OLVG Hospital, Amsterdam
- Chairman "Committee on identification and management of child abuse", OLVG Hospital, Amsterdam.
- Instructor, national course "Nitrous oxide sedation in children", Amsterdam